USA*Engage (www.usaengage.org) is a coalition of small and large businesses, agriculture groups and trade associations working to seek alternatives to the proliferation of unilateral U.S. foreign policy sanctions and to promote the benefits of U.S. engagement abroad. Established in 1997 and organized under the National Foreign Trade Council, USA*Engage leads a campaign to inform policy-makers, opinion-leaders, and the public about the counterproductive nature of unilateral sanctions, the importance of exports and overseas investment for American competitiveness and jobs, and the role of American companies in promoting human rights and democracy worldwide.

The National Foreign Trade Council (www.nftc.org) is a leading business organization advocating an open, rules-based global trading system. Founded in 1914 by a broad-based group of American companies, the NFTC now serves hundreds of member companies through its offices in Washington and New York.

A Brief Explanation

The 112th Congress enacted significant trade legislation while failing to act on several bills of importance to American commerce. Most of this legislation was already pending or was a reauthorization of existing programs. Congress took up no major new trade initiatives. Congress continues to be divided along party lines on trade legislation with Republicans being markedly more favorable than Democrats, but with important exceptions.

USA*Engage selected eight votes in each house of Congress to score, including the long-pending trade agreements with South Korea, Colombia and Panama, China currency legislation, Ex-Im Bank reauthorization, Trade Adjustment Assistance, Iran sanctions, sugar program repeal and immigration reform. Sanctions legislation does not figure prominently in this scorecard since the only sanctions vote was to enact additional sanctions on Iran and Syria, which the Senate passed by voice vote. The House passed the bill with only 11 Members in opposition, and that vote is scored.

On these votes the Senate scored well into positive territory, with 64 Senators receiving an A or B. Of those, 37 are Republicans and 27 are Democrats, including one Independent. Four Senators – three Democrats and an Independent – received a grade of D. The House also scored well with 186 Members, or 43% receiving an A or B. House votes on these trade bills were more partisan than the Senate with 138 Republicans scoring an A or B as opposed to 48 Democrats. On the other hand, 28 House Members (23 Democrats and four Republicans) scored a D, and one Democrat an F. It is striking that all Members of the House leadership of both parties scored an A or B with one exception on the Republican side.

Other important trade legislation, such as renewal of the African Growth and Opportunity Act's Third Country Fabric provision, extension of the Andean Trade Preference Act, extension of the Generalized System of Preferences, and legislation permitting the imposition of countervailing duties on imports from non-market economies was passed without recorded opposition, and they therefore are not scored.

The Congress has not acted on legislation to extend permanent normal trade relations to Russia, reauthorize Overseas Private Investment Corporation, or to authorize new free trade agreement negotiations. Importantly, Congress has also not extended Trade Promotion Authority to the President, which will become a priority issue as the Trans-Pacific Partnership negotiations near completion.
